

Treasury Department,

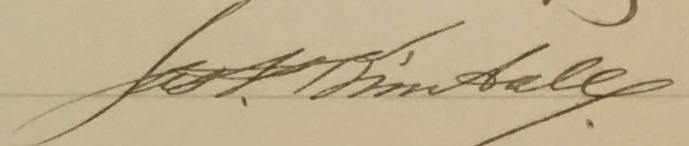

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., December 22, 1886.

Sir:

Your requisition upon the Chief Clerk of the Department for toilet paper for the use of your mint, has been referred to this Bureau. As this paper cannot now be supplied by the Department you are hereby authorized to purchase such quantity as you may think necessary, paying for same from your appropriation for Contingent expenses.

Hon David M. Fox
Supt. Mint of
Philadelphia Pa

Very respectfully,

Director,

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 143

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
December 22, 1886

Sir:

Your requisition upon the Chief Clerk of the Department for toilet paper for the use of your Mint has been referred to this Bureau. As this paper cannot now be supplied by the Department you are hereby authorized to purchase such quantity as you may think necessary, paying for same from your appropriation for contingent expenses.

Very respectfully,
Jas. P. Kimball
Director.

Hon. David M. Fox
Supt. Mint U.S.
Philadelphia, Pa.